What are the Benefits?

- Since 1947, the American Association for Respiratory Care (AARC) has been committed to enhancing your professionalism as a respiratory care practitioner, improving your performance on the job, and helping you broaden the scope of knowledge essential to your success. With more than 47,000 members nationwide, the AARC is the only professional society for respiratory therapists in hospitals and with home care companies, managers of respiratory and cardiopulmonary services, and educators who provide respiratory care training.
- In addition to offering a full range of services, programs, products, and money-saving opportunities to meet your needs, our major emphasis has been and will always remain the same—helping you grow and develop as a respiratory care professional.
- Your support of the AARC is integral to the success of the profession. Each member helps us gain access and strengthen our position and credibility with lawmakers and administrative agencies. By joining us, you strengthen the foundation of this profession
